

THE SEARCH FOR A CIVIC VOICE

California Latino Politics

by Kenneth C. Burt

$24.99 paper
ISBN 1-930053-50-9
438 pages, 40 illustrations

The Search for a Civic Voice: California Latino Politics is the story of ordinary people who did extraordinary things. It is a story of firsts. The first appointees to state boards and commissions, the first judges, the first city council members and state legislators. It is also the story of outlawing school segregation, obtaining old age pensions for non-citizens, and organizing farm workers.

The Search for a Civic Voice: California Latino Politics is both an academic book and one that will be enjoyed by readers interested in history and current events.
LOS ANGELES MAYOR ANTONIO VILLARAIGOSA
from the Foreword

This is quite an achievement, because there are no publications on Latino politics in California or elsewhere available with such extensive coverage.

FRANCISCO E. BALDERRAMA
Professor of History and Chicano Studies
California State University, Los Angeles

Kenneth Burt understands the convergence of social movements and partisan politics.
